At the Market

On Friday morning, Yoav goes to the market with his grandma. The market is noisy and full of people. There are a lot of colorful stalls. Everybody is shouting the prices.

First, they buy fruit: six peaches, two melons and a pineapple. The pineapple is very big! Then Grandma buys tomatoes, cucumbers and an onion for a salad. Yoav carries the bags.

Near the fish stall, Yoav sees a cat with three little kittens. The kittens are very hungry. A fisherman gives them two small fish. Yoav laughs. At the end, Grandma buys Yoav an ice cream, and they take a bus home.
