A Day in Tel Aviv

Last Friday, Ben and his dad went to Tel Aviv by train. First, they visited a science museum. Ben loved the room about space. He saw a real rock from the moon!

At twelve o'clock, they were hungry. They walked to the beach and had lunch in a small restaurant. Ben ate falafel, and Dad ordered a fish salad. After lunch, they played matkot on the sand.

In the afternoon, they bought presents for Mom and for Ben's sister, Tamar. Ben chose a book about horses for Tamar, because she loves horses. They came home at six o'clock. Ben was tired, but he told Mom everything about the day.
